John S. Lee, M.D., fellowship trained surgical oncologist, recently joined Sutter Medical Group. Dr. Lee is a senior staff member at the Sutter Medical Center, Sacramento and has been in private practice as a thoracic and surgical oncologist since 2004.

Dr. Lee received his medical degree from the New York University School of Medicine. He completed his general surgery residency at Vanderbilt University Medical Center. During his residency he completed a Clinical and Research Oncology Fellowship at the National Institutes of Health, National Cancer Institute Surgery Branch in Bethesda, Maryland. Dr. Lee then completed an accredited Surgical Oncology Fellowship at the Fox Chase Cancer Center in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He has been board certified by the American Board of Surgery since 2003.

Dr. Lee is an active member and participant of the American College of Surgeons Oncology Group and the Society of Surgical Oncology. Dr. Lee serves as the ACOSOG Principal Investigator and an NCI Institutional Investigator for Sutter Health Cancer Research Group trials. He is also a member of the American Society of Clinical Oncology and the International Association for the Study of Lung Cancer.

Dr. Lee is interested in the interdisciplinary management of thoracic and gastrointestinal malignancies and soft tissue sarcomas. His unique training and fellowship experience has created a special interest in thyroid cancers and melanoma.

Since his arrival in Sacramento he has developed collaborative relationships with Interventional Radiologists and Radiation Oncologists and participates in novel treatment strategies such as Radiofrequency Ablation and intra-operative Radiation therapies. He has also successfully worked with many medical oncologists throughout the region.

The physicians and staff of Sutter Medical Group provide personalized, high quality primary and specialty care in offices conveniently located throughout Sacramento and Placer counties. Sutter Medical Group is affiliated with Sutter Health, a community-based, not for profit network of health services, including primary and specialty physicians, outpatient and mental health services and 26 acute care hospitals, including Sutter Medical Center, Sacramento.
